COMMUNITY COUNSELING CENTER EXPANDS TO ANDOVER, OHIO

Andover, OH – Community Counseling Center (CCC) has expanded operations to better serve residents of southern Ashtabula County. The new satellite office, located at 149 E. Main Street, Andover, Ohio, represents a continued partnership with the Anchor of Hope Resource Center. This new location increases access to the comprehensive continuum of behavioral health services offered by CCC. Residents of Andover and surrounding areas will now have in-person access to a broad array of services, including counseling, psychiatric medication management, substance use disorder treatment, case management, supported employment, and peer recovery support. The community is invited to attend an open house and ribbon cutting to celebrate the official grand opening of this location on Wednesday, October 15, 2025 from 1:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Paul Bolino, Community Counseling Center President & CEO noted, “this location expands the footprint of CCC, with established offices in Ashtabula, Geneva, Conneaut, and now Andover. This is first and foremost about connecting more people in need to vital behavioral health care services. As we build connections, we build stronger communities.”

Community Counseling Center is a non-profit behavioral health provider focused on engaging the community in recovery. CCC is certified by the Ohio Department of Mental Health & Addiction Services, and accredited by CARF International. With over 60 years of experience, the organization provides mental health and substance use disorder treatment across the lifespan in Ashtabula County, Ohio and beyond.
